COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL

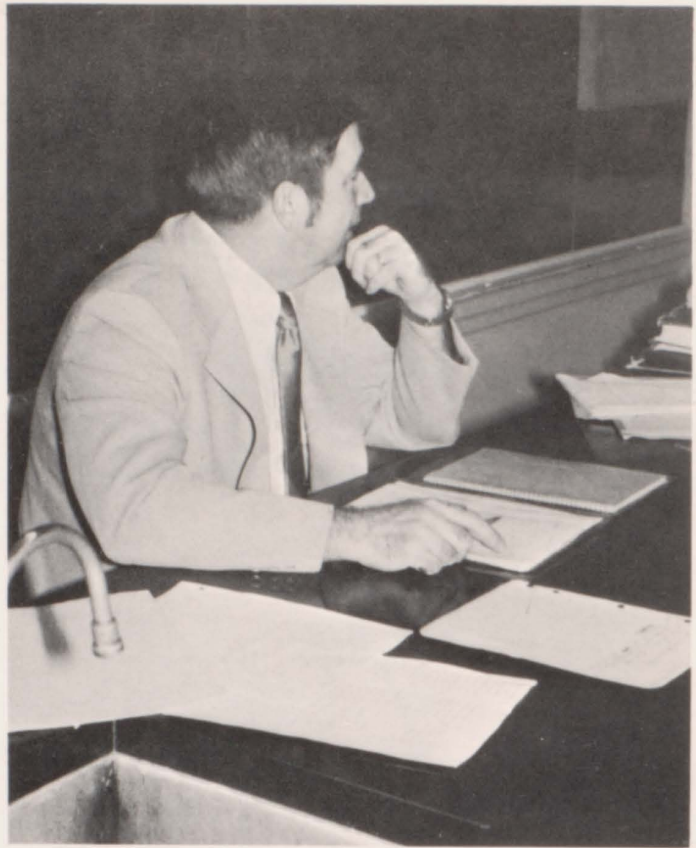

WOOD RIVER, ILLINOIS

DEDICATION TO

WALTER
PYLE

REMEMBER WHEN WE DISSECTED FROGS
AND YOU GOT A FEMALE,

AND WHEN YOUR PLANTS DIED TWO WEEKS BEFORE THE RESEARCH PAPER WAS DUE,

THEN THERE WAS THE TIME ALL THE FRUIT FLYS GOT AWAY????

NOW LET'S REMEMBER THE MAN WHO MADE IT ALL POSSIBLE

THIS YEAR'S ANNUAL IS DEDICATED TO WALTER PYLE,

WHOSE ENTHUSIASTIC TEACHING
AND WARM FRIENDSHIP MAKES
EVEN BIOLOGY A CLASS WORTH
ATTENDING AND REMEMBERING.

The art appreciation club is an organization dedicated to the promotion and understanding of art. Membership is open to all students. Each year an effort is made to take several field trips to St. Louis and one to Chicago to visit various museums and galleries. The club raises money for these projects by sales of candy, ribbons for team support and bake goods.

CONCERT BAND

MARCHING BAND

The instrumental music program in our school allows the students interest to progress from the concert band to the symphonic band, and in doing so built their musicianship according to their ability. The marching band, a combination of these groups, performs at many functions through the year.

The enjoyment of being able to speak and write in a Foreign Language is a most pleasurable one. This year to add among our German, Spanish, and Latin languages, we have added French. Miss Theisen the Latin teacher is also sponsoring the new Club. Throughout the year there are various dinners, banquets, and field trips, with the highlight being the Annual Language Club Christmas Party.

National Forensics League is sponsored by Lynn Yearwood and is the uniting of speech and debate team members. Points are earned by public speaking performances and pins are awarded accordingly. The club also co-sponsors a public speaking tournament of it's own.

Speech Team sponsored by the English Dept., represents our school at various speech tournaments throughout the year. Poetry, Prose, Oratorical Declamation, and Original Monologue are just a few of the categories in which our members excel.

DEBATE TEAM

Under the guidance of Linn Yearwood, the Debate Team participates actively in area tournaments of Greater St. Louis Speech Association. Taking part in such activities help members to learn the worth of logical thought and constructive speech making.

International Thespian Troup 733 is in its 28th year of activity in the high school's drama program. Students earn their way into the troupe through participation in productions either on the stage as performers or on the set and technical crews. Becoming eligible requires the earning of 10 points. These prospective members must then go through an initiation and are then inducted at the annual banquet.

FUTURE SECRETARIES

There is a growing need for capable and efficient secretaries. The fulfillment of this need is the purpose of Future Secretaries. This club is made up of students taking courses who want to pursue that career.

FUTURE NURSES

The goal of Future Nurses is the field of medicine. They prepare for their career through lectures, field trips, and most of all, volunteer work at Wood River Hospital.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

Future Homemakers is organized to prepare its members to successfully create a happy home. Students who have taken or are taking a year of Home Economics may join. What the girls learn in class is supplemented by Future Homemaker activities such as field trips and service projects.

What kind of joke is this?

I've got to hurry to sign up for the new co-ed P.E. classes!

Cheetah, Tarzan, & Jane

That's my art work over there.

Rats, I forgot to shave this morning.

I think that was my thumb I just sewed.

ARG G G G G G H !!!!!

Oh, gosh you guys

Why Me ??????????

Can you balance your books on your head?

If I were elected the next President of the U.S., I would . . .

If you could see what I am seeing, you'd be looking like I'm looking.

Darn It! Was I suppose to run or pass??

It was love at first sight!

Well, Hi There!!!!

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Maria Regina Senra Anachoreta of Rio de Janeiro visited EAWRCHS as foreign exchange student through Open Door Exchange program.

Regina's Brazilian family consists of a lawyer father, a teacher mother and one older and two younger sisters. Regina's personal interests are music and reading and in school she enjoyed the subjects of biology, chemistry, and history.

Jo Collins and her family hosted Regina's visit to the United States.

A THURBER CARNIVAL

This year's fall production was directed by newcomer Judith Fialek. Mrs. Fialek chose to present "A THURBER'S CARNIVAL", a collection of works by humorist James Thurber. This excellent material combined with fine talent provided an excellent beginning to EAWRCHS' dramatic season.

Grammer Gurton's Needle directed by Richard Claridge was this year's entry in the IHSA contest. How Grammer Gurton sought to find her missing needle and the excellent talent of the cast were not enough this year to carry EAWRCHS to state finals. Still congratulations are due on a job well done.

IN THE BEGINNING

Front: Laura Dugger. 1st Row: Debbie Fillback, Sue Rice, Debbie Stock, Jill Samples, Laura Maynard. 2nd Row: Robyn Jouett, Lisa Dodson.

This year's children's play was an experiment in audience participation. Childrer were allowed to take part in the action and use their own imaginations. Lynn Yearwood's choice of "IN THE BEGINNING" proved to be a real winner.

Andy Macias, Jim Curtis, Randy Mundt, Terry Miller, Don Harlan.

Directed by Tony Militello, THE RILL was a story not out of line of typical hometown life found in The Waltons. People gossiped, children played and grew up and lived in general family harmony as is in all small towns. Along with THE RILL, two duet acting scenes, a Reader's Theater, and Grammer Gurton's Needle was presented.

FINE ARTS FESTIVAL

The Fine Arts Dept. presents the Fine Arts Festival annually. The band and various choruses perform and a fashion show is presented by the Home Ec. Dept. with the models wearing their own creations. During the intermission, the audience can view various artworks done by students throughout the year.

50's DAY

FROM BEGINNING...

1st Place: Terry Disher

2nd Place: Randy Oglesby

It was FUN. It was HILARIOUS. It was the LIVING END. It was 50's Day at EAWRCHS. This student Council sponsored event proved to be highly successful in arousing student interest and participation. This makes it desirable for an annual event. Out of many possibilities, costume prizes were captured by Dawn Davis, Tina Ray, Terry Disher, and Randy Oglesby.
